

"She only says a few words... Who can I talk to?"

If you are worried about your child's development, Early Steps can help.

Florida's Early Steps Program provides early intervention services to eligible children from birth to 36-months.

The sooner a developmental delay or disability is identified, the sooner our team of providers can work with your family to help your child thrive.

Florida
HEALTH

Scan for more information or visit FloridaEarlySteps.com.